Ashford Business Services Ltd

Cookie Policy

For 14 Oakfield Road, Birmingham B17 9JH - operated by Ashford Business Services Ltd

Last updated: 9 November 2026

1. What cookies are Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website. They help the site remember your preferences and understand how visitors use it.

Purpose: Required for the site to work (security, load balancing). Examples:

Purpose: Remember your settings (language, region). Examples:

Purpose: Help us understand visits so we can improve the site. Examples:

Purpose: Used by ad partners to show relevant ads and measure them. Examples:

3. Third-party cookies Some cookies are set by third parties, including Google Analytics / Google AdSense / list others. Their use is governed by those parties' own privacy policies.

4. Managing cookies You can accept or reject non-essential cookies using our cookie banner or your browser settings.

Blocking some cookies may affect how the site works. To opt out of Google Analytics: link to opt-out. To manage ad personalisation: link to ad settings.

5. Changes We may update this policy. The latest version is always at cookie policy URL.

6. Contact Questions: sarah.mitchell@ashford-business-services.co.uk.

Important: cookie and privacy rules differ by jurisdiction (for example the EU ePrivacy/GDPR rules and various US state laws). This is a general template, not legal advice. Have a qualified lawyer review it against the laws that apply to you. Delete this notice before circulating the finished document.